MRS. DANFORD GIVES PARTY FOR BRIDE-ELECT AND BIRTHDAY CELEBRATIONS

Mrs. J. C. Danford was hostess at another of the pretty functions for which she is celebrated, the affair taking place at her home at 308 East Harvard street Thursday evening. It was in honor of Miss Marguerite Stauffacher, who is to be married some time this spring, her fiance, Henson Rogers, being a young business man of Dallas, Tex. She has been a member of the library staff for about two years during which she has won the esteem of patrons by her cheerful, efficient service, and gained the affection of her associates in the library. The party was also a celebration of three birthdays, that of Miss Stauffacher, Miss Laura Roberts and Miss Edith May Church.

As Miss Stauffacher's favorite color is pink, that was made the motif of the decorations and accessories, pink Cherokee roses featuring the refreshment table gathered into a great bowl at one end, with a handsome pink birthday cake at the other end and a little bon bon basket favor for each guest decorated with wild roses, and for each guest a separate little cake of French confectionery decorated with a wild rose design.

The evening was devoted for the most part to a literary game, a set of queries to which the answer was

GUEST IN THE MEYER HOME

Lieutenant Arthur Fairchild is a house guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Meyer, of 212 East Maple street. He has just returned from France and received his discharge in New York. As an intimate friend of the late Lester Meyer he is peculiarly welcome. He will be with them about a week and has many thrilling experiences to relate about his service over there. His home is in Juneau, Alaska, but he will go from here to San Francisco, where he is going into business.

LOCATED AT LAST

Mr. F. H. Merrill was in the News office yesterday and expressed himself as delighted to know "where he is at," at last. He lives on Scholl Canyon Road, which had its name changed to Sierra Avenue a year or two ago, but it is now firmly intrenched as Scholl Canyon Road again. When Mr. Merrill's brother from the East was out to see him a few months ago this brother had to invoke the aid of the police to locate him and even then it was a hard job.

HONORING PROF. RICHARDSON

Professor Elmer C. Richardson, who recently returned from service as a flying instructor at an aviation camp in Texas, and who has charge of machine shop work in the Department of Manual Arts at Glendale Union High School, was made the guest of honor at a banquet given by the students of his department in the Cafeteria of the school recently. About thirty were present and the room was decorated with the national colors for the occasion. It proved a very delightful affair and the professor gave an interesting account of his experiences in the army and the stunts flyers are called upon to perform.

INCOME TAX RETURNS

At the request of the banks of Glendale, Collector John P. Carter has kindly consented to send a deputy collector of revenue to Glendale to aid citizens in filling out income return blanks.

He will be at the City Hall Wednesday, March 12th, and Thursday, March 13th. The service is free.

KENSINGTON CLUB

CELEBRATES FIFTH ANNIVERSARY AND ELECTS OFFICERS FOR COMING YEAR

About thirty ladies were present at the fifth anniversary banquet of the Kensington Club which was served at Grand Army Hall on Glendale ayenue Thursday noon. Smilax and spring flowers were used in decoration and it was a very pretty affair. Following the banquet was a brief business session at which Mrs. Pearl Gillette was selected to succeed Mrs. Saunders as president, and Mrs. Jennie Phillips re-elected secretary and treasurer. There was a brief program of recitations and music and the balance of the afternoon was given to needlework and social chat.

DR. LUCAS EXPERIENCES A NEAR ROBBERY

The other day while Dr. P. O. Lucas, of Brand boulevard, was at work upon the molars of a patient, a friend, who has his interest at heart, stepped into his official studio long enough to suggest that he keep a more careful eye on his property. The friend explained that he had discovered two huskies who were strangers to him, meddling with the doctor's car standing near by. He challenged them and as they could make no satisfactory explanation they made off. The doctor investigated and found he had left his key in the car and if the friend had not happened by at the psychological moment, there would have been no more car than a rabbit.

ILLINOISANS MEET

MRS. BLAKE FRANKLIN ENTERTAINS OLD FRIENDS KNOWN IN LACON, ILL.

Mrs. Blake Franklin entertained Friday afternoon in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Price Holmes, of Emporia, Kansas. It was a pretty affair in all its appointments with a lavender and yellow color scheme carried out in floral decorations and refreshments. The guest list included Miss Florence Martin of Van Nuys, Miss Marian Fairbanks of Hollywood, Mrs. B. McManamy, Mrs. Ed Ramp, Mrs. L. Chambers and Miss Rachel Bayne of Los Angeles, and Mesdames W. W. Worley, J. H. Franklin and Mabel Franklin Ocker of Glendale. The ladies are all old friends whom the hostess knew in her old home in Lacon, Illinois. A very pleasant social afternoon was spent recalling old times and at the close dainty refreshments were served.

VICTORY CAMPAIGN

The Presbyterian Church in America is representing the "New Era Movement" and is thus giving the world the benefit of the greatest work the church has ever put forth. The motto for the five years' program planned is as follows: "The whole church marshaled behind its whole task and a task for each individual in the church, this is the New Era Movement."

According to their program they are putting "Spiritual" first; "Service" next, then "Study" and "Finance." The budget for the current year is $25,000,000 for current work, and $13,000,000 for benevolence, and they expect to go "over the top" this month of March with the slogan "Thirteen Million an Hour for Three Hours."

In connection with this great work and in accordance with the suggestion of the General Assembly for the churches, the Presbyterian Church of Glendale will hold a Victory Campaign April 6th to 27th under the leadership of Dr. French E. Oliver. The work is starting with success and enthusiasm and much spiritual good to the church and community is sure to be the result.

G. U. H. S. DEBATING TALENT

It was by no means an easy task to select material for the debating team of Glendale High to uphold the honor of the school during the coming half year in which they will be up against hot competition. There were six candidates and but four could be taken. The choice after careful comparison of the points made by each at the tryout fell upon Frank Balthis, Philip Wernette, Guy Bennett and Leland Wise. The last named is new to the debating arena.

The general debating theme is "Immigration" and the first limitation of the subject was received Friday morning, viz.: "The Relation of Immigration to Reconstruction." The exact subject will be received three weeks hence and the first debate will take place April 4th, Glendale debaters going to Hollywood and Pomona representatives coming here.

FUNERAL OF JOSEPH ALVA ADAMS

Funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon over the body of Joseph Alva Adams, who died Tuesday, March 4, 1919, at his home at 1228 Glendale avenue, this city, leaving a widow, three sons and two daughters, his son, J. Allen Adams, and his daughter, Phoebe Adams, residing with him. He was a native of Canada and a veteran of the Civil War. The local G. A. R. Post had charge of the services, which were held at the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial Park where interment was made.

GAS EXPLOSION WRECKS HOUSE

LONG BEACH BUNGALOW IS PARTIALLY DEMOLISHED WHEN ATTEMPT IS MADE TO LIGHT HEATER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Long Beach, March 8.—The house at 2315 East Second Street, Long Beach, was completely wrecked today and Mrs. Charlotte Wood was severely burned when accumulated gas exploded as she attempted to light a gas heater in a bath room at 7 o'clock this morning.

Her father, William Kinsey, owner of the house, and Mrs. Louise Clark, a guest, were sleeping in bedrooms along the east side of the bungalow. The explosion blew away the entire east end of the house. Mrs. Wood is in the hospital with serious burns about her chest and feet.

INTERNATIONAL FIGHT BY W. C. T. U.

MONEY APPROPRIATED TO OPPOSE THE MOVING OF THE BREWERIES TO MEXICO AND THE ORIENT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

New York, March 8.—Mrs. Ella Boole, national vice-president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, declared today that her organization is planning a war against the brewers who are moving their plants to Mexico and the Orient. She said $300,000 has been appropriated for the campaign in the Orient.

She also announced that the W. C. T. U. does not intend to fight smoking among men, but that it will fight the use of tobacco by women.

DAMAGES THREE-QUARTERS OF A BILLION

THOUSANDS OF CLAIMS BY AMERICANS FOR DEPREDATIONS COMMITTED BY HUNS FILED WITH STATE DEPT.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, March 8.—The State Department today announced that American claims for damages against Germany and Austria filed with it thus far total $750,000,000. More claims, it is said, are expected.

The claims which have been filed with the department are by American firms and citizens and cover a variety of alleged depredations by the Central Powers, including death and injury from submarine warfare, destruction of American vessels, losses of American cargoes in both foreign and American ships, the loss of valuable personal property and destruction of American-owned property in territory which the enemy occupied.

At the outbreak of the war Americans owned approximately $300,000,000 of property in territory which the enemy invaded. The total number of claims runs into several thousands.

TOTAL AMERICAN CASUALTIES 240,197

ACTUAL FIGHTERS AGAINST THE ENEMY NUMBERED 1,390,000—CASUALTIES IN 91ST DIVISION 5,838

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Washington, March 8.—Chief of Staff General March announced today that the War Department plans to retain an army of 509,000 men until Congress provides otherwise. He declared that the United States cannot get along with a small army and that no reduction below the half million mark will be made under any circumstances unless Congress passes a law ordering it.

General March revealed that a total of 419,000 men have sailed for home from overseas, and that 354,000 actually have arrived up to last night.

A total of 1,613,000 men are under orders for demobilizatiton.

General March announced that the total American battle casualties were 240,197, killed, wounded and missing, and that 1,390,000 were actually engaged in fighting against the enemy.

The total casualties of the 91st Division, composed of western men, amounted to 5,838.

The general announced that suicide in the army has been less than among the civilians; that there had been a total of 193 cases of suicide in army camps in the United States and 146 overseas up to February 21.

COMPROMISE EFFECTED IN BERLIN

Berlin, March 8.—Leaders of the Spartacides called off the general strike at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Work will be resumed Monday.

A settlement was had on the basis of the government's plan to grant the soviet constitutional recognition.

Despite the calling off of the strike, fighting continued in some parts of the city. At 5 o'clock this afternoon the rebels were still desperately fighting in the northern section of Berlin and were barricaded behind cobblestones and rolls of paper. They were holding off a vastly superior government force.

Alexander Platz is in ruins and resembles a village in No Man's Land. Other streets are strewn with dead and wounded, the latter without medical attention. It is estimated that 300 have been killed and 500 wounded during the fighting. Most of the casualties have been among the rebels.

Members of the American mission are still safe in the Adlon and Palace Hotels, the fighting having quieted in that district.

SPEEDY UNION OF GRAND VIEW WITH GLENDALE

Today the thirty-day limit for the making of protests on the Grand View election expires. No contest has been reported and the papers will be forwarded to the Secretary of State at Sacramento. When they have been returned by him the election will be confirmed making Grand View a part of Glendale. That will probably not be effective before the 11th of March. In the Grand View district are citizens who have long desired to have a part in Glendale's municipal advantages and also to have a part in shaping the destiny of the city in which they are deeply interested. They will be warmly welcomed as citizens.

NEW VOCATIONAL FIELD

HIGH SCHOOL ESTABLISHES COURSE TO TRAIN STUDENTS FOR WORK IN MUSIC STORES

The Music Department of Glendale High, of which Mrs. Dora Gibson is the head, is putting on a vocational course in music for the benefit of musically-inclined students who want to have an earning capacity as soon as they finish high school. It is the first course of its kind to be established in any high school so far as known, and the news has been received with enthusiasm by dealers in sheet music and in musical instruments who usually have to take their employes "raw" and give them the fundamental knowledge they should have to be of any great value in such positions. The training to be given will especially fit them for work in the music department of a store, especially the victrola department.

Mrs. Gibson has talked with the heads of several large stores in Los Angeles who have told her there is a growing demand for help of that character. The course will include musical history and make students familiar with the masterpieces of music, the best opera, etc., by means of victrola records. It will also make them acquainted with the Victrola, Columbia and other phono-

OLD FRIENDS ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Paine of 328 North Orange street have had the pleasure of entertaining several old friends this week. Tuesday three cousins were their guests, Mrs. Kate Sheldon and little daughter Joyce and Mrs. Margaret Herrick of St. Paul. Thursday Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kinney of Ravenna, Nebraska, their young lady daughters, Ruth and Louise, who are students in Doane College at Crete, Neb., and their young son, Raymond Kinney, were entertained by the Paines with a long auto ride and in a similar way the next day, returning with their host and hostess for dinner in Glendale Friday evening. The Kinneys are making Los Angeles their headquarters during their stay here.

INTERMEDIATE P.-T. A

The Intermediate Parent-Teacher Association has planned an excellent program for Monday afternoon at 3:15 at the Intermediate School.

The singing of "America" will be led by Miss Brenneman with Mrs. H. Brown at the piano. Miss Ruby Baughman, Supervisor of Immigrant Education of Los Angeles will give an interesting talk on "Americanization," the big word of the present time. Mrs. J. A. Wright will contribute a piano solo and Mrs. Chas. A. Parker a vocal number.

FRED THOMPSON LOSES BROTHER

Sorrow came to Fred Thompson of 214 West Harvard street Friday when he received a message announcing the death of his oldest brother, Edward Thompson, of Indianapolis, Indiana, of cerebral hemorrhage. They had such a happy meeting in January when Mr. Thompson went East that the news was a great shock. Edward Thompson was 52 years of age and leaves a wife and little son nine years of age.

VISIT NEIGHBORING CHURCH

Pastor C. A. Cole, A. L. Lawshe, Fred Thompson, J. H. Orth, R. G. Rees, O. L. Kilborn, Fred B. Mattice, W. H. Hedges, E. H. Learned and H. A. Stevenson motored to South Park Christian Church last night to attend a revival in progress under the leadership of H. E. Wilhite, assisted by the pastor, Bruce Brown. It was a delegation from the Central Christian Church of Glendale, not only to attend the revival services, but to inspect the new church building just completed.

CHURCH DINNER

CHOIR AND OFFICIAL BOARD OF FIRST M. E. CHURCH ENJOY BANQUET

A combined social and business affair was held at the First M. E. Church Thursday evening, which proved so delightful that, on motion of Arthur Lindley, a vote was taken to make it a quarterly event. It was a banquet for the official board of the church and the choir which was served by the Ladies' Aid Society under direction of Mesdames Lusby and Nicholas. The sixty-two guests who gathered around the table were about evenly divided between the choir and the Board. The meal was delicious and substantial and was followed by excellent after-dinner speeches, Rev. Scott, who made the opening remarks acting as toastmaster. He dwelt on the relations between the pastor and the choir. A. W. Tower, who followed, had the toast, "The Choir from the Congregation," which he handled in a very artful way. He said he understood his topic to indicate that he was to be the eyes of the congregation as they looked upon the choir and he declared he was going to vocalize for the congregation. He then proceeded to represent all sorts of people and the things they noticed about the choir, cleverly dividing blame and blessing. Every listener felt he had said some very lovely things to the singers of the church and also called attention to every fault which might be suggested.

Mrs. Emma Burket responded most acceptably to the toast, "The Congregation from the Choir." Dr. Matthew P. Hawks, leader of the Sunday School orchestra, a retired minister and also an accomplished musician, in his response to "Music Hath Charms," proved a master humorist and nearly broke up the meeting in convulsions of laughter. At the same time he made a speech very much worth while. The toast of Miss Guelph McQuinn, "A Note from the Organ," was most warmly received.

Dr. Ralph Lusby received a most appreciative Godspeed, the choir giving him a fine send-off to San Fernando, to which he made a very apt response.

Miss Isabel Isgrig, the choir leader who made the concluding speech, was greeted with a round of hearty applause.

As stated, it was one of the pleasantest affairs of the church which has been held for a long time and the vote to make it a quarterly event was unanimous. Following the dinner the choir met for practice and a business session was held by the Board.

ANOTHER "FATHERS' NIGHT"

The "Fathers' Night" party of the Central Avenue School will be held at the residence of E. B. Wyman, 1326 North Maryland avenue, Tuesday evening, March 11th, at 8 o'clock, for which a very delightful program has been arranged. Mrs. John W. Cotton and Francis J. W. Henry have graciously consented to sing and Mr. R. D. White, Superintendent of Schools, will speak on the "Present Crisis in Education."

The gathering is to be quite informal in character and the program has purposely been made short so there will be plenty of opportunity for sociability and for the enjoyment of the very delicious refreshments that will be served.

All parents of the pupils in the Central Avenue School are urged to be present and add to the jollity of the occasion.

ROUND TABLES

INNOVATION PLANNED FOR TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB PROGRAMS

The regular meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club which takes place next week Tuesday will open as usual with a patriotic song, this time "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean." Mrs. Calvin Whiting will contribute a vocal selection and the address of the afternoon will be made by that well-known authority on new books, Miss Gertrude Darlow of the Los Angeles public library.

Following the address there will be discussion around five tables for which themes and leaders have been selected as follows:

First—Recreation, Mrs. E. H. Willisford.

Second—A City Park for Glendale, Mrs. A. W. Tower.

Third—Glendale's School Election, Mrs. J. I. Wernette.

Fourth—Our Club Betterment, Mrs. John Robert White.

Fifth—The Pacific Coast Congress for a league of nations, Mrs. Charles H. Toll.

MAKE RETAILER THE GOAT

In the investigation before the Assembly at Sacramento on the high price of bread, butter and eggs, there is the usual attempt to saddle the blame on the retailer. One witness said the cost of manufacturing a 24-oz. loaf was 7½c, the baker sold it to the retailer for 8c and the latter to the consumer at 10c. The truth is that Glendale retailers pay 9½ cents for a loaf and sell it for 10c. They pay 10 cents for some loaves and sell them for 11c, and 11c for other makes and sell them for either 12c or 13c. Thus the retailers' profit is from one-half cent to two cents and his per cent. of profit is from 5 per cent. to 15 per cent. As to butter, some of our retailers are selling it on a margin of 2c a pound and none of them on a greater margin than 6c, though in war times they were allowed 7c and 8c. The ads of our grocers in the Evening News show conclusively that they are selling on the lowest possible margin.

BABY CHICKS ARE VALUABLE

When poultry feed ascended to unheard of prices two years ago, thousands upon thousands of hens were sold because owners could not afford to feed them. As a consequence eggs scored a new high price record last year, never dropping below 40c a dozen. This caused a rush to get back into business and now many are barred from entering the business because they cannot buy hens. Today baby chicks are bringing 20c and more each and the supply is not equal to the demand. It is probable that by another year a hen census will show an even larger population than two years ago, and if feed comes down by that time everybody can afford eggs for breakfast at least.

SYNTHETIC MILK

High-up employes of the two largest creamery companies in the City of Los Angeles have plead guilty recently to selling synthetic milk, an adulterated product. One was fined $150 and the other sentenced to 50 days in jail. The defense in both cases was that the synthetic milk was intended for use in baking only, and was not harmful when so used. The ground taken by the prosecution was that while the synthetic product was labeled differently from the pure milk the label did not state that it was of that nature, hence there was danger of it being used by children, to their hurt. And, further, that its sale was in defiance of pure food laws. Both defendants promised to sell no more synthetic milk. To be absolutely safe the Glendale householder should buy her milk of our well-known and reputable dealers either directly or through stores handling it .

GET IN LINE

What were considered the most desirable business buildings were nearly all occupied during even the dullest season and the ending of the war has speeded up all activities and there has been a wild scramble on to grab the best. No sooner was announcement made that a room was vacated until two or three firms were after it. Rooms are occupied now that have been idle many months, even years. Glendale sure do move.

REDONDO PIER DAMAGED

A high wind, huge waves and the strongest undertow ever known combined to badly damage the new concrete pleasure pier recently completed at Redondo Beach, which was supposed to be absolutely safe from destruction. Huge pieces of concrete were broken off and the sun parlor completely swept away. The damage is thought to total from $50,000 to $75,000.

There has been more high wind this winter in Glendale vicinity than for many years. In November, 1911, there were three consecutive days of much higher winds than any experienced recently and a great amount of damage was done to trees and wires.

CERRITOS P.-T. A.

A most cheering audience which numbered not less than seventy-five gathered at the Cerritos School Thursday afternoon for the regular monthly P.-T. A. meeting, at which Mrs. Glassburn presided.

The singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," which, as usual, was the opening number, was followed by a duet by Frances and Ruth Goldsborough. The Third Grade then gave a class song of greeting to the mothers, and a piano solo was played by Preston Blair.

Mr. Harwood, the principal, read a characteristic letter from a recent graduate, June Goto, presenting to the school a Japanese tree as a souvenir of her graduation.

The rising vote showed that Miss Hamil's room had the largest representation of mothers and was entitled to the cake which is the regular prize offered for such attendance.

Mrs. Curtiss' room was found to be entitled to the prize for the largest membership, the premium being a party to be provided by the P.-T. A.

Announcement was made of "Fathers' Night," which is to be celebrated March 20th at the Knights of Pythias' Hall on Brand boulevard. Richardson D. White, Superintendent of Schools, is to be the speaker on that occasion.

The reservoir at the eastern end of Raleigh street frequently overflows when the pumps are not shut off in time. Thrifty residents in that vicinity, hating to see so much water wasted, turn it by skillfully constructed dams on to their gardens, for irrigation purposes, with gratifying results.

Personals

The lowly hen still continues to roll forth the precious pearls at from 3c to 4c per pearl.

Willis A. George and wife went to Long Beach yesterday for a visit with the family of C. B. Oren in Long Beach.

Miss Anna Austin, who is spending the winter in Azusa and who is a cousin of Henry Johnston, of 111 North Everett, was a visitor in his home Friday.

Paul Rider, son of Rev. O. P. Rider, will speak at the Tropico Presbyterian Church Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, his theme being "My Army and Navy Experiences."

The home of John B. Dibbern on South Glendale avenue was entered yesterday and nearly all of his clothes were stolen. Mr. Dibbern was at his work in Los Angeles and his wife was away from home.

By special request, Dr. Henry R. Harrower of this city on Tuesday night addressed the Medical Association of Tulare and Fresno counties and on Thursday evening spoke before the Kern County Medical Association.

Miss Margaret Pardon has entered the Public Library to take training as a library substitute. She will begin intensive work in the regular library course as soon as she completes her high school work in June. She will fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Miss Marguerite Stauffacher.

Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery and Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Bryant chaperoned a party of about twenty young people, most of them members of the senior class of Glendale Union High Friday evening on an auto trip to Venice where the evening was spent in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. McCrea and family are arriving today to spend about a week in Glendale as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Kent on North Central Ave. They expect to sail for China a week hence. They have a large circle of friends here who will welcome the opportunity to see them again before they leave and wish them Godspeed.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Linkogel of 448 Vine street have the sympathy of the community in the loss of their infant daughter born Thursday and buried this morning at 10:30 o'clock in Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Friends will be glad to know that Mrs. Linkogel, who is a sister of Mrs. R. V. Hogue, is doing nicely. The little one who passed away was her third child.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herron, Hervey and Doris Herron will be weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson of 214 West Harvard street. The Herrons formerly resided in Glendale, but are now living in Long Beach where Mr. Herron is doing a furniture repair business. Mrs. Thompson will be glad to have old friends call upon them Sunday afternoon.

A paved scenic highway up the Arroyo Seco as far as Darke Canyon is soon to be constructed, the government sharing the expense as the road will be of inestimable value to the forest rangers in times of mountain fires, enabling them to transport fighters to the scene of the conflagrations. When this and the Devil's Gate dam are completed there will be a big rush of auto travel through Glendale from the southwest.

The Young People's Association of the Glendale High School will hold its regular monthly meeting Monday afternoon in the C. and S. Cafeteria. Subject for the meeting, "Social Life in the High School." The speaker will be Miss Sarah Dole, vice-principal of girls in Manual Arts High, Los Angeles. A discussion will follow, open to all present. Parents and friends of students are urged to attend and take part in the discussion, as it should interest all citizens. The meeting will open promptly at 3:30.

SOLDIER PORTRAITS

As announced some days ago, the photographs of some 266 soldiers and sailors inducted into service in this district by the local Exemption Board were received by the Board and have been forwarded to the office of the Adjutant General at Sacramento. Before they left Messrs. Roberts and Echols grouped them and made photographs of the groups, one of which included only Glendale selects. The order numbers of the men are photographed in connection with the portraits. There will probably be a considerable demand for these groups.

MASONIC NOTICE

Unity Lodge, No. 368, F. and A. M., will hold a special meeting Tuesday evening, March 11th, at 7:30 p. m. Grand Lecturer Thos. Baker and Inspector Edw. B. Spencer will be present. All Masons invited.

"It's not what you make, but what you save that counts."

"My wife is opposed to life insurance—would your widow be?"

"You are in debt—why delay protecting the best creditor you have—the baby?"

"Do you know you will be alive on the 10th of next month? Why ask your wife to take the chance?"

"Have you neglected your fire insurance? Of course not. Then why delay covering the most precious thing you have—your life?"

"So you give your wife $60 a month to run the house—best you could do. Well, who would do it if your salary was cut off?"

GENUINE CORDIALITY LACKING

Glendale, Cal., Mch. 7, 1919.
Dear Mr. Editor:—

You say, in Wednesday's issue of the News, that there is a "warm spirit of cordiality prevailing among the pastors and congregations of the city." We are proud that Glendale is a Christian community; proud of the high civic, patriotic and religious tone of our city. Nothing can contribute more to the maintenance of this desirable state of affairs than the very cordiality of which you speak.

Yet there are not wanting, here and there, signs that the spirit of cordiality does not extend to all our people. For instance, I have heard the statement that no Catholics and Christian Scientists may teach in Glendale schools. Why? The Catholics are, numerically, the strongest denomination in Glendale, and it really seems to me that they should be entitled to some little good-will, at all events. Yet they don't often get it.

A few years ago I invited a distinguished Catholic educator to Glendale, and I was told that he could make an address in the high school auditorium only on condition that there was "no sectarian teaching" in his talk. Now I see that, on four consecutive Monday nights, ministers are going to give religious talks in that same auditorium. What is sauce for the goose ought to be sauce for the gander.

If there were less discrimination, less opposition to some of us because of our religious belief, there would be a genuine cordiality and sympathy which has not always existed in the past.

Yours very truly,
J. S. O'NEILL.

A GREAT DAY AT THE FIRST METHODIST CHURCH THURSDAY, MARCH 6TH

The ladies of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society celebrated the 50th anniversary of the organization of the Society, and it was a Jubilee day from start to finish. At the noon hour all the tables in the large dining hall were filled with guests. The special feature following the repast was an address by Mrs. M. V. McQuigg, of Pasadena, Jubilee Secretary of the Pacific Branch, on the Jubilee work. Birthday cakes, containing 50 lighted candles were in evidence, also a large crayon poster picturing the women who on a rainy afternoon 50 years ago were going to Tremont Church, Boston, to organize the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church in March, 1869. Following Mrs. McQuigg's inspiring address an experience meeting was held during which the older ladies present told when and where they first joined the Society.

There were four who have been members of the Society since its organization 50 years ago, Mrs. Mudge, Mrs. Byrket, Mrs. Smart and Mrs. Norton, and a large number who had belonged 40 years or more.

The ladies then went to the parlors of the church for the afternoon session. Mrs. Banks conducted the devotional services; prayer was offered by Mrs. Corbin, a former missionary to Mexico. Following opening remarks by the President, Mrs. T. A. Wright, a paper was presented by Mrs. Hoskyn on the History of the Society, also a reading, entitled, "Our First Daughters, Miss Isabella Thoburn and Dr. Clara Swain."

Special music was given by Mrs. Meagher. A plea was made for new subscribers to the Sociey's magazine, "The Woman's Missionary Friend," and 14 subscriptions were secured. This magazine has been published by the Society for 50 consecutive years, has never been in debt, has never changed its price, and has a circulation of about 175,000.

Three new members joined the Society. At the close of the session, the ladies fell into line to the song, "Coming, Coming, Yes We Are;" each one in passing dropped into the basket a cent for each year she had been a member. It was surely a profitable day for all who attended.

LANDS A GOOD JOB

R. C. Udell of 620 Orange Grove Ave. was at home over Sunday last, for the first time in three weeks. He was formerly a clerk in Chaffee's grocery and later worked in the shipyards at San Pedro. Coming home from the latter place one evening he was struck by a speeding auto at Sixth and Main, Los Angeles, suffering a fracture of the skull and other serious injuries which it was feared would be fatal. He finally recovered, however, then took down with the flu, which kept him on his back for several weeks more. When able to work he finally secured a position with the firm he was with before coming to Glendale, Coop's Music House, of Pasadena. He was at San Bernardino nearly three weeks and since then on the road visiting various cities. He hopes soon to be permanently located and near enough to Glendale to get home for week ends, as the family does not want to leave this delightful city.

6:30 p. m., Young People's meeting, social half hour preceding.

7:30 p. m. Sermon topic, "Stranded."

The evening theme is based on Dr. Willisford's experiences on his way home from France, when his ship, the "Northern Pacific," was stranded off "Fire Island."

He tells about the 2500 soldiers on board, 1700 of whom were sick or wounded: 300 of the number were stretcher cases.

How these men were taken off over the side of the vessel and how port was finally made.

NEW STREET NAMES

Many people still are confused over the new street names, especially the terminations, such as avenue, road, drive, etc. The following are simply Streets: Adams, Alexander, Belmont, Boynton, Burchett, Campbell, Carmel, Cedar, Chester, Cherry, Chestnut, Colorado, Commercial, Concord, Dolores, Eighth, Everett, Forest, Geneva, Gilbert, Granada, Green, Harvard (formerly Fifth St.), Hawthorne, Hill, Howard, Isabel, Ivy, Jackson, Kenwood, Laurel, Loraine, Los Angeles, Louise, Maple, Mariposa, Milford, Mountain, Myrtle, Oak, Olive, Orange, Oxford, Princeton, Railroad, Raleigh, Randolph, Ross, Salem, Sixth, State, Vassar, Vine, Walnut. All these, with detailed description and location of each, will be found in the new 1919 Directory, a copy of which should be in every home.

CHINA SHOWER

in each case the name of an author. The cards used in the game were beautiful hand-painted affairs in harmony with the color scheme, Miss Laura Roberts being the artist. The prize for the game, which was won by Miss Stauffacher, was a hand-painted motto: "Rest does not mean the ending of a busy career," which is regarded as particularly appropriate under all the circumstances.

Following the refreshments of pink and white ice-cream and cake, a pretty gift was bestowed by the hostess on each birthday celebrant and the bride-elect received a china shower from the assembled guests, and to her mother was presented a bouquet of pink carnations.

The ladies who enjoyed Mrs. Danford's hospitality were: Miss Marguerite Stauffacher, Mrs. J. W. Stauffacher, Miss Laura Roberts, Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, Miss Edith May Church, Mrs. J. W. Barton, Mrs. Ruth Crane, Miss Margery Singleton, Miss Fern Porter, Mrs. Gladys Rivers, Miss Margaret Pardon, Miss Leone Shattuck, Mrs. Charlotte Shattuck, Mrs. Isabelle Jordan, who was accompanied by her grandson, Master William Althouse.

WORKING OVERTIME

Lewis Sipple of 1239 E. Harvard has a pen of 10 Rhode Island Red hens that will certainly get into trouble with the hen union for over-production. They are of the pure Harrison strain, Hoganized, and the 10 have on two occasions recently laid 11 eggs in one day. Mr. Sipple is absolutely sure of this for he has these 10 in a separate pen and trap nests every hen. One of the 10 on two occasions recently has laid a very small egg containing no yolk whatever, early in the forenoon, and a full sized one in the afternoon. Each of the other 9 laid but one. In the month of February these 10 hens laid 227 eggs, which is 80 per cent. Three different days every hen laid. They are just a year old this month. They began laying last October and have been at it steadily ever since. They were hatched from eggs laid by a pen of 10 Reds that last year laid 2239 eggs, exactly 62¼ per cent. for the entire year. Mr. Sipple has 170 hens, 100 of them Reds and the rest Anconas and White Leghorns. If all could equal the record of the faithful 10, he could soon start a National bank.

KEPT HER PRESENCE OF MIND

Mrs. Bachelor of East Wilson avenue, who has been in San Diego for a short visit, returned Thursday evening. During her absence her daughter, Mrs. Sandlin, who is a member of the Broadway P.-T. A., had quite an exciting experience. She was in a bedroom caring for her baby when her little son, a baby himself and only about two years' old, who is just beginning to talk plain, told his mother there was a big fire in the kitchen. Investigating, she found waste paper in flames and the kitchen apparently about to go. Making sure of the safety of her children she grabbed a hose and turned it on the blaze without losing either time or presence of mind, and put the fire out. Mrs. Sandlin is more used to water than fire as she is an expert swimmer and has been called upon for fine stunts in moving picture productions. Her neighbors are proud of her resourcefulness, and her intelligent baby.

NEW VOCATIONAL FIELD

graph catalogues that they may be able to give prompt and intelligent service when called upon. For instance, if the patron wants a certain selection from a certain opera the aim will be to have the salesman or saleswoman so well grounded in the records that information can at once be given as to whether such a record can be obtained and by what artist it was made.

Mrs. Gibson also wrote to the head of the educational department of the Victor Talking Machine and his reply was most encouraging, saying he considered it a most important field.

In this department in the High School are a considerable number of girls who have real musical talent yet who do not feel that they can afford a musical education. A position in which they could command a good salary as demonstrators and saleswomen would be a great opportunity for such as the work would be congenial and the money would enable them to have the musical instruction desired.

Students in this vocational course will also be expected to take commercial school training in book-keeping and stenography to qualify them to be all-around assistants in music departments where they may be called upon to handle more than one kind of work.

THEATRICAL OFFERINGS

If you want to be entertained don't miss seeing Charles Ray in "The Girl Dodger," which will be shown today (Saturday) at the Palace Grand and if you want to be still further amused you must not miss "Love" as depicted by Fatty Arbuckle on the same program. It is a wonderful bill of comedy.

Sunday there will be another comedy, "Never Too Old," featuring Charles Murray, the big offering being "The Little White Savage," in which the leading role is taken by Carmel Myers. This would probably have been classed in the old days as melodrama.

Florence Reed in "The Everlasting Struggle," which is full of intensely interesting situations, will be presented Monday, together with the Pathe News feature which is such a hit with patrons.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON CLUB

The program of the next meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club will be a Round Table discussion, Mrs. W. W. Ramsay in charge.

One of the questions to be discussed, "What Can We Do for the Betterment of Our Club?" will be reported by Mrs. John Robert White. The members are invited to come prepared with plans and thoughts which they would like to have brought before the Club to make for its growth and advancement in our community.

The score of the basketball game yesterday on Glendale High School grounds was: Glendale 76, Burbank 11. Coach Hayhurst changed his line-up a number of times, thus trying out all the candidates for positions.

WHEN HE COMES HOME—there should be a new Portrait to record the event. We will make such pictures free of charge to every sailor or soldier; tell your friends there is no limit. All are welcome. Bring the uniform. No obligations to order photos. You get one free, and we keep one for a large group to be finished when all are back home.
